

Eastlake Girls Softball League – Player and Parents/Guardians Code of Conduct

As a parent/guardian of a player in the Eastlake Girls Softball League I agree to:

- Encourage good sportsmanship by showing respect and positive support to players, coaches, and officials.
- Not engage in actions that cause deliberate insult or injury to anyone
- Place the emotional and physical well-being of the players above any personal desire to win.
- Insist the children have a safe and healthy playing environment that is drug and alcohol free.
- Support coaches and officials in trying to provide a positive, enjoyable experience for all.
- Help the girls keep their commitments and ensure the girls have the necessary and appropriate clothes and equipment to play.
- Make every effort to have player(s) attend every practice and all games and to notify coaches in advance if a practice or game will be missed.
- Support activities and events which help keep the league strong and viable.
- Remember the game is for the children with the goal of learning and having fun.
- Encourage family and friends attending practices and games to abide by this code of conduct.
- Expect players to behave in the manner prescribed in the Player’s Code of Conduct listed below.
